Submittal of Study Plan, Quality Assurance Project Plan for Dry Weather Microbial Source Tracking, San Luis Rey River Watershed, San Diego County, California

Dear Ms. Walsh,

The County of San Diego (County) is pleased to submit the attached Study Plan, Quality Assurance Project Plan (QAPP) and Sampling and Analysis Plan (SAP) for the Dry Weather Microbial Source Tracking, San Luis Rey River Watershed Study. The objective of this study is to analyze persistent and transient flowing MS4 outfalls during dry weather for human fecal contamination and identify remedial actions to abate any sources of contamination found.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Neil Searing at (858) 495-5513 or by e-mail at Neil.Searing@sdcounty.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

NEIL SEARING, Land Use/Environmental Planner III
